

Relationship Building Ideas

Plug into a group member's needs as soon as it becomes apparent (ie giving time or money to help)

Match people up with accountability partners in the group

Separate men and women during prayer time

Emphasize one-on-one discipling relationships

Connect people to a group activity in the area of passion

Plan an activity outside the group meeting time

Email prayer requests to each other during the week

Find an avenue to serve together at Northshore Baptist

Write encouraging notes to each other to church leaders

Look for a mentor for yourself or open yourself up to mentor someone else

Serve alongside a group in a different season of life

Confront one another in love

Be transparent

Watch each other's kids to give people a break or date

Have everyone share their personal faith journey

Abide by the Matthew 18 principle for offenses

Stop divisive conversations; direct people to proper channels

Attend a marriage or parenting event/class together
